

CODEMAVERICKS

Terms and Conditions

Terms and conditions regarding the termination of participation, refunds, and photography/videos for your coding classes:

1. Termination of Participation:
 - a) Both parties (the participant and CodeMavericks) have the right to terminate their participation in the coding class at any time.
 - b) A written notice must be provided to initiate the termination process.
2. Refunds for Classes Not Completed:
 - a) If the participant terminates their participation in the coding class before completing all scheduled classes, they may be eligible for a refund.
 - b) The refund amount will be determined based on the number of classes not yet attended.
 - c) The refund process will be initiated promptly upon receipt of the termination notice.
3. No Refunds for Classes Completed:
 - a) No refunds will be provided for classes that have already been attended and completed by the participant.
4. Photography/Videography:
 - a) CodeMavericks reserves the right to capture photos or videos of the entire coding class for promotional, marketing, or educational purposes.
 - b) Any photos or videos taken will be used responsibly and with respect to the privacy of the participants.
 - c) If the participant has concerns regarding their privacy or the use of their likeness, they should notify CodeMavericks in writing prior to the start of the coding class.
